The telegraph a few days since stated, that a young man in Andrew county shot a companion for snow-balling him. The St. Joseph Union of January 18th, gives the following particulars: "The Deputy Sheriff of Andrew county arrived in this city yesterday morning, having in custody a young man by the name of John Chandler, who had been brought here for safe-keeping in our county jail, having been arrested on a charge of murder."

The circumstances attending the homicide, as detailed by the Deputy Sheriff, were about these: A party of young men—all friends and associates—had assembled themselves together in Jackson township, Andrew county, on Tuesday, and for pastime were engaged in snowballing. In the course of the strife Chandler was singled out as a special object for the balls of his companions, and the fun growing to warm for him, he was compelled to take shelter behind a tree. A couple of young men started in pursuit, when he drew his revolver and threatened to shoot them if they approached nearer. This frightened them and they stopped, but another of the crowd, named Alfred M. Davis, ran around the tree and threw another ball at him, upon which Chandler fired. Immediately after young Davis clapped his hand upon his breast, saying: "John you have killed me," and falling upon his face, soon expired."

An article of Captain John Smith, in the new number of the North American Review, undertakes to prove him a sort of Munchausenish adventurer, and produces testimony to show that his story of Pocahontas interposing to save his life is a mere fiction. As to what sort of a creature Pocahontas was, the writer quotes the following from an old colonial history: "Pocahontas, a well natured but wanton young girle, Powhatan's daughter, sometymes resorting to our fort, of the age then of eleven or twelve yeares, would get the boyes forth with her into the market-place, and make them wheele, falling on their hands, turning up their heeles upwards, whom she would follow, and wheele so herself, naked as she was, all the fort over."

A SINGULAR INCIDENT.—On Monday evening two young men, citizens of this place, who had been indulging very freely in whisky, in a saloon on Francis street, suddenly resolved to abstain in the future from the use of intoxicating liquors, and then held up their right hands while the proprietor of the saloon administered to them a mock oath. Just as the words "So help me God," were pronounced, the gas lights in the room were extinguished without the matter having been in the least touched. All present were struck with the unaccountable freak of the gas, and were dumbfounded at the seeming rebuke by the God whom they had insulted.—St. Joseph Herald, Feb. 7th.

The Committee of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, in conjunction with similar bodies in France and Spain, have determined to hold an International Anti-Slavery Conference in Paris on the second or third week of June next. The programme of the discussions embraces the slave-trade, the abolition of Slavery where it still exists, and the results of emancipation. This is the first International Conference of the kind that has ever been held, and will, we hope, give a new impulse to the speedy extirpation of the slave-trade and Slavery, and to the education of the freedmen all over the world.—New York Tribune.

PRUSSIA has been giving to the men who achieved her recent brilliant victories in the German war substantial rewards. On Christmas eve the pensions voted by the Prussian Chambers were paid over to various generals and statesmen. Count Bismarck received $375,000, and the Prussian War Minister, General Von Roon, General Von Moltke, General Von Bittenfield, General Von Steinmetz and General Vogel Von Falckenstein received $150,000. As a great deal more money than this was levied by Prussia upon her conquered foes, she can well afford to pay the men who planned the victories.

MR. SEWARD, under date of February 1st, replied to the House resolution inquiring what had become of the laws repealing the President's amnesty power and regulating Territorial elections, in a letter which we print today. It appears that the President suppressed these laws, and did not send them to the Secretary for official publication until January 31. Having found out that it was by Mr. Johnson that the laws of the United States were pocketed, there remains to be discovered the reason of this extraordinary usurpation. On that point Mr. Seward throws no light.—New York Tribune.

HARD TIMES IN NEW YORK.—A recent New York letter says: "All kinds of business is dull. Young men are pouring by hundreds into New York for employment, only to swell the ranks of the thousands who have nothing to do. Discharges from stores, factories and warehouses are taking place every day. It bears especially hard on laboring people, on mechanics, the better class of workmen, sewing women and girls who just live under the best of circumstances. Heartrending instances of suffering and want are detailed daily."

AUSTRALIA AT THE EXPOSITION.—We read in the Melbourne Argus:

It is intended to forward to the Paris Exhibition a pyramid representing the space which would be occupied by all the gold produced in this country during the last fifteen years. The height of the trophy will be 59 feet 10 inches, while at the base it will measure 10 feet square. Its cubic capacity will be 1,994 feet, and it will represent a weight of 1,070 tons and a fraction, of the value of £140,000,000.

The Virginia Enterprise of the 17th inst., says:

The following is a statement of the amount of bullion shipped during this week: From the office of Wells, Fargo & Co's in this city, there were shipped 4,413 pounds of assayed bullion, valued at $127,630 70; from their office in Gold Hill, 1,705 pounds, valued at $49,147 37. Total pounds, 6,118; total value, $176,777 97.

THE following is a dispatch to the New York Tribune:

Washington, February 5.

Official dispatches have been received at the War Department stating that there is no truth in the report that 50 men have been killed by the Cheyenne Indians beyond Fort Wallace.

The Curiosities of Figures.

In a former issue we took occasion to refer briefly to the interesting pamphlet compiled by John H. Carmany, entitled "A Review of the Mining, Agricultural and Commercial interests of the Pacific States for year 1866," and to extract liberally from it. We promised to return to the subject at an early day. The modest pamphlet not only presents facts and figures of value to the statistician, but abounds in much useful information to the general reader.

It is curious to note the influence which the civil war had on the direction of what is termed "the money drift." Capital is as sensitive to danger as the pith-ball is to electricity. The presence of a single privateer—the Alabama—on the Atlantic turned almost the whole tide of treasure from New York and Eastern home-ports to England, and one might almost read the history of our civil war from the figures of the currency movement. A statistician could take the treasure tables given in the book before us and mark the commencement of our National troubles and their final close. Let us see what the figures say:

During the twelve years from 1854 to 1866 inclusive there was shipped from San Francisco in treasure, the enormous sum of $610,686,154. The largest amount during any one year was $55,707,201, in 1864; the smallest being $40,676,758, in 1861. These shipments of treasure were made to cancel indebtedness mainly due in Eastern home-ports for articles there purchased and imported into the Pacific States. From 1854 to 1861 inclusive the bulk of the treasure went to our home Atlantic ports and ranged from thirty to upwards of forty millions of dollars, the highest being $46,533,166, in 1854; the lowest $32,628,011. During the three years preceding the war, and the appearance of the Alabama in the Atlantic, the exports of treasure to England were as follows:

1859	$3,910,930
1860	2,672,936
1861	4,061,779

Here the current suddenly changes. The war clouds loomed up. The rebellion was gathering strength, The pirate was afloat. American bottoms were threatened with capture on the high seas. Instead, therefore, of our treasure continuing to flow towards New York, direct in American ships, it was diverted at Aspinwall to the English steamers and took the roundabout course to Southampton, England. The exports to England took a sudden bound as the figures show. The treasure shipment to that country from San Francisco after 1861 was as follows:

1862	$12,950,140
1863	28,467,256
1864	34,436,423

While during the same years the shipment to Eastern home-ports fell (in round numbers) down to twenty-six millions, ten millions, and thirteen millions respectively. In 1866, the war being closed and the Alabama and her consorts driven from the ocean, the old state of things resumed their sway, and we shipped to Eastern ports $29,244,891, and our treasure to England fell off to $6,532,208, the normal condition of trade.

One of the most striking evidences of the healthful growth of the Pacific States is derived from the figures showing that while the treasure product has not materially diminished, the export of merchandise (mainly home products of agriculture or manufacture) steadily increases. The total merchandise exports in value was (in round numbers) as follows: In 1864, thirteen millions; 1865, fourteen millions; 1866, seventeen millions. As showing the relative amount of foreign and domestic trade there was paid for freights alone at San Francisco, in 1866, the sum of $6,717,522, of which $4,787,564 was on imports from domestic Atlantic ports, and $1,929,958 from foreign ports.

The receipts of treasure at San Francisco through regular public channels, the records of which are accessible, in 1866, amounted to $52,691,653, while the exports were only $44,364,393, showing a gain of $8,327,260 retained in the country, while in 1864 California exported treasure amounting to nearly half a million more than her receipts, draining the country to that extent to pay for importations. On the whole the "Review" proves that the Pacific States are advancing rapidly and surely in all the elements of enduring prosperity.

FROM PAHRANAGAT.—We received a call from Judge Lawrence, late Special Postal Agent. The Judge made the trip from Salt Lake City here in four days and eighteen hours running time. Reports the road in excellent condition. Since reaching the city he had assays made, by Theall & Co., of ore from two ledges in Pahranagat, from the Pahranagat Lake Mining District. Rock from the Sebastopol Ledge assayed 10.084 grains silver to the ounce, or at the rate of $796.38 to the ton. Another ledge, the Waukenah, assays 4.54 grains silver to the once, or $358-54 to the ton. The Judge is on his way to San Francisco.—Virginia Trespass.

GOOD SHOOTING.—The Stockton Independent of February 13th, says:

Ned Hickman, M. Gilmore and H. D. Saunders, in two days shooting on the Mokelumne, lately, got 426 birds. J. A. Jackson and Mr. Magee, in the same locality and time, got 360—all quail.

SAN FRANCISCO HEALTH.—A dispatch to the Sacramento Bee of the 13th inst., says:

Diptheria is prevailing as an epidemic in San Francisco. Nine children have died from it within the past few days.

JOHN CHENEY, a hunter of the Adirondacks, possesses a pistol with which he claims he has killed 1,500 deer, 12 otter, 1 panther, 28 bear, 19 wolves, 24 moose and other game without number. He has carried the pistol thirty-two years.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Providence, R. I., February 22.

The Union State Convention nominated Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside for Governor of Rhode Island, and Wm. [illegible] for Lieutenant Governor. Thomas A. Jenckes and Nathan A. Dixon were re-nominated for Congress.

Cincinnati, February 22.

The river commenced falling this afternoon, having reached 54 feet above low water mark. Considerable damage has been done property in the neighborhood of the river, and great inconvenience occasioned the railroads by the high water.

Washington, February 22.

In the Senate, on motion of Howard, the Pacific Railroad Committee were discharged from further consideration of the resolution of the Kansas Legislature asking aid for the Southern branch of the Union Pacific Railroad.

In the House, Stevens, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back without amendment the Senate amendment to the Civil Appropriation bill. The House non-concurred in the amendment striking out the appropriation for the Congressional Globe. The amendment appropriating $40,000 to facilitate telegraphic communication between the Atlantic and Pacific was concurred in—140 to 8. Other amendments of an unimportant character were agreed to. The Senate amendment to the Military Academy appropriation, striking out the proviso that no moneys shall be expended, in violation of the Test oath, and no Cadets admitted from rebel States, was non-concurred in. Senate amendment making an appropriation for the Portugal Mission was also non-concurred in. The other amendments were concurred in. Le Blond moved to reconsider the vote by which the Senate amendment in regard to the Portugal Mission was non-concurred in, but the motion was tabled.

The twelfth attempted revolution of Corea, at Panama, has been squelched by killing several of the insurgents.

Washington, February 22.

The supporters of the Military Government bill have ascertained that the President will veto it on next Monday or Tuesday, thus affording Congress an opportunity to take further action upon the measure.

In the Senate, McDougall presented the credentials of Cornelius Cole, Senator elect from California for six years from the 4th of March, 1867. Ordered on file.

A bill passed ordering the Postmaster General to advertise for proposals for monthly steamship service between San Francisco and Honolulu; the cost not to exceed $100,000 per year.

Washington, February 22.

The U. S. steamer Shenandoah arrived at Singapore January 1st, and would sail on the 8th or 10th for Hong Kong. She had fine receptions at all the points touched in the East Indies.

Washington, February 22.

Yesterday was generally observed here as a holiday. All the Departments were closed.

Nashville, Tenn., February 22.

The Union State Convention, to-day, nominated Governor Brownlow for re-election, by acclamation. The resolutions sustain Congress. A resolution was adopted declaring that Tennessee looks upon Gen. George H. Thomas as her adopted son, and the savior of her State Capital from the hands of traitors; the man who never made a mistake or lost a battle; and the choice of the people of the State for the next Presidency of the United States.

New Orleans, February 22.

A letter from Mantanzas reports the failure of De la Torreto, a wealthy planter and merchant, with liabilities amounting to $7,000,000.

Washington, February 22.

The Committee on Southern Railroads have summoned before them Secretary Stanton and other witnesses.

The annual meeting of the Washington Monument Association was held yesterday, General Force, Third Vice President, in the Chair. The old officers were re-elected, and are: President Johnson, ex officio, President; Mayor Wallach, ex officio, First Vice President; Gen. U. S. Grant, Second Vice President; Gen. Peter Force, Third Vice President; J. C. Brent, Secretary; J. B. H. Smith, Treasurer.

New York, February 23.

The Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of the 5th inst., says that the entire road from Puebla to the Capital is strewn with the debris of the retreating army. The Liberals were restrained from attacking by strict orders from Diaz, but appearances indicate that a slight demonstration would convert the whole march into a grand rout.

The American Consulate is garrisoned to protect American citizens.

Maximilian tells every one that he does not consider himself Emperor, but only Chief of the National Party.

The Herald's Panama Correspondent says our Minister to Colombia, Mr. Burton, still maintains his antagonistic position.

It has been decided that foreign mails can crosss the Isthmus of Panama without hindrance.

Masquera favors the annexation of Ecuador. This is supposed to be part of the policy laid out for him in Europe.

From South America it is rumored that another proposition for peace has been made by France and England, but its terms were not permitted to be made public. It is again intimated that peace proposals from the Government of the United States would be cordially received.

The revolution in Mendoza is reported to be increasing in importance. The insurgents recently gained a decided victory. General Capo, at the head of 4,000 men, invaded Marcayby, and meeting the forces of President Sutherland of Venezuela, a battle ensued which lasted seven hours. Capo was killed, and his forces then retired.

New York, February 23.

The Times' special says the Judiciary Committee will report in the Impeachment matter as soon as certain witnesses in the South, who have been sent for, are examined.

Surratt's sister visited him in prison yesterday. The meeting was very affecting. The sister encouraged him to keep a stout heart, but the conversation was chiefly on domestic affairs. The Judiciary Committee have not yet examined Surratt concerning the complicity of Jeff. Davis in the assassination of Lincoln, nor is it likely they will do so until it is known what will be the proceedings against him.

New York, February 23.

The Tribune's Cuba correspondence says it is reported that a speedy conclusion of peace between Spain and the Allied Republics is probable. The internal condition of most of the Republics continues most favorable.

Ex-President of Peru had been charged with swindling, and his speedy exile was predicted.

A Tribune special says the Cabinet had a session on the Military Government bill yesterday. The President would sign the bill as for the section dividing the rebel States into military districts. The other sections he does not regard as an objectionable, though he would have preferred the simple Blaine amendment.

A dispatch from North Platte, via Council Bluffs the 23d, to the Associated Press says:

Postal Agent Brooks, from the Pacific coast to Washington, is snow bound at this place, the heavy snow drifts having prevented all communication by mail between this place and Omaha since the 19th inst. Mr. Brooks and passengers were caught in a snow storm near the summit of the Rocky Mountains on the 15th inst, and the whole party narrowly escaped perishing.

METEORS.—The California press, from all portions of the State, speak of a meteor of immense size having been seen, but from the difference of the time of its appearance, there must have been more than one, as one was seen in the morning and the other in the evening, so the papers say. A dispatch of the 11th inst., from San Juan, Monterey county, says:

"About half-past five in the morning, a meteor like a globe of fire was seen falling in the southeast, and a few moments after a heavy ground shock was felt, accompanied by a tremendous report, as if some terrific explosion had occurred very near us. The same phenomenon was observed, shock felt and report heard at Gilroy and Watsonville, fifteen miles in the opposite direction."

The Stockton Independent of the 12th says that at about the same time it was seen at that place, and the Nevada Gazette says, on the evening of the 11th in was observable at that place, and adds:

"When first seen the meteor was some fifteen or twenty degrees above the horizon. It was nearly due south from here, and moving westward very rapidly, and descending toward the horizon at an angle of about thirty degrees. It was apparently about the size of a twenty-four pound cannon ball, and was risible three or four seconds, and left a bright train in its course, but which rapidly disappeared."

The San Francisco Bulletin, Times and Alta, all speak of its appearance in the evening. We leave the solution to the astronomers of the age.

RATHER STEEP.—Lewis Baker, the new speaker of the Maine House of Representatives, is evidently fitting for Congress. His speech on taking the chair had this burst of "hifalutin": "From beneath a glittering crown that girt a throbbing brow, the hot look of a sleepless eye was fixed upon the forests of Maine. Right then it was our noble Union army, some 70,000 strong, came marching out from among her pines, with their elbows touching, and each bearing in front his covering bough from Birnam wood; they moved on Dunsinane, palsying with dread the sceptered hand of the shuddering Thane of Cawdor."

THE RIOT MATTERS.—There has been no more rioting on the part of the mob which disgraced our city on Tuesday, their victims being protected from their fury by the police or out of their reach for the moment. About twelve Chinamen were injured, more or less, and two or three are maimed for life, but no deaths have as yet occurred from the injuries received. The work at the different points threatened by the mob has stopped entirely, the contractors being unable to determine what course to pursue, whether to depend on the police and military for protection and go on with the work, or abandon their contracts altogether.—Alta California, Feb. 13.

HEAVY FREIGHTING.—The Colorado Times says an enormous freighting business across the plains is to be done this year by Government. Proposals appear in the River papers for thirty million pounds from Fort Leavenworth to Laramie and other posts northwest and west of it, north of 40 deg.; from Fort Riley and other points on the Union Pacific, Eastern Division, to posts in Colorado south of 40 deg., and to New Mexico and Arizona, twenty million pounds are to be transported. This will make many a poor contractor rich.

THE bronze statue of Chief Justice Marshall, for the Richmond Washington Monument, is on its way from Munich. The statues of Nelson and Lewis, and the allegorical figures and trophies designed as ornaments for the lower portion of the monument, will likewise soon be shipped to this country from Munich.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Florida, is said to be a delightful residence. The Examiner of that place, speaking of the great crop of oranges, says that 60,000 will be picked from one grove. A gentleman there writes that "they hang in rich yellow clusters from trees on the sides of the streets, and the soft air is redolent of their rich perfume."

The Seward Letter.

Washington, February 6.

The following papers were laid before the Senate this morning:

To the President: The Secretary of State, to whom was referred the resolution of the Senate of the 24 inst., requesting the President to communicate to that body, if in his opinion not incompatible with the public interest, a copy of the letter on which the Secretary of State founded the recent inquiries addressed to Mr. Motley, Minister of the United States at Vienna, with regard to his reported conversations and opinions, and to furnish the name of the writer of such letter, has the honor to law before the President a transcript of the paper referred to.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

MR. M'CRACKEN'S LETTER.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, Feb. 4, 1867.

GEO. W. M'CRACKEN to the President of the United States:

PARIS, HOTEL MAURICE, Oct. 23, 1866.

MR. PRESIDENT: I have traveled a good deal in Europe during the last year, and had occasion to see something of our Ministers and Consuls in various countries. A large majority of those whom I met with were bitterly hostile to you and your administration, and expressed that hostility in so open and offensive a manner as to astonish American travelers, and to leave a very bad impression on Europeans who were present. This was particularly true of those from the New England States, of whom a large majority of our foreign representatives seem to be composed, and a very indifferent set they are individually and collectively. Mr. Motley, Minister at Vienna, does not pretend to conceal his "disgust," as he styles it elegantly, at your whole conduct. Having been appointed exclusively by Charles Sumner, he applauds him and his revolutionary doctrines, despises American Democracy, and proclaims loudly that an English nobleman is the model of human perfection. There is not in all Europe a more thorough flunkey, or a more un-American functionary. He tells every traveler that Sumner is entirely justified, and that you have deserted your principles in common with Mr. Seward, who, he says, is hopelessly degraded. At Frankfort, the Consul Murphy, who is said to have cleared more than $100,000 through his office, declared repeatedly that the threat of his friend Zach. Chandler would be made good, and ought to be, by your impeachment. This is notorious, and a public scandal. The fellow himself is vulgar, ignorant and unworthy, and is one of Chandler's tools. Hale at Madrid, condemned your course in a malignant manner to various Americans, and so did Morris, at Constantinople. Some of my friends who went to Morocco, heard Mr. Moth, at Tangier, rail violently and shamefully against you, saying he was ready to retire from such a concern. Perry, at Tunis, was equally offensive in his language. There are many others in the same boat, and it is time that better men were appointed—men who will at least respect the President and the dignity of his office. Radicalism, of the worst sort, makes war on you, and your friends, under every pretext, and yet the instruments of that faction are blatent all over Europe in condemnation of both. It is a shame and a stigma to permit this longer. Massachusetts seems to monopolize a lion's share of the Consulates, and Boston has no less than three first missions, Messrs. Adams, Burlingame, and Motley. Is no other part of our country to be considered worthy of notice? Must General Butler, Philips, Chandler and the like engross all the honors for their satellites? I want nothing at your hand, of any sort; but fit and decent men should be sent abroad, who will not slander the Chief Executive and the Government. The Consul at Genoa is a common drunkard, and a disgrace to the country. When sober he abuses the President in the hearing of everybody. Respectable Americans are very much mortified by the presence of such unworthy persons in places of trust and responsibility, and few like the task of letting their experience be known, as I have done. There are hundreds who know more, but prefer to remain silent.

Most respectfully,
GEO. W. MCCRACKEN, of New York.
A friend will deliver the note personally.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.—A young man named Henry McDavid was yesterday arrested in this city, by Chief Edwards, for forging the signature of De Witt to a telegraphic dispatch to the firm of De Witt, Kittle & Co., San Francisco, thereby obtaining $400 at the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at Colfax, California. David came out to this coast from New York on the same steamer with Mr. De Witt. Being in Calfax and knowing that De Witt was also there, he telegraphed to the firm in San Francisco in De Witt's name, stating that he had met with an accident and asking the firm to send him $400. The money was sent, and he drew it at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office at Colfax, in the name of De Witt. From Colfax McDavid came to this State, following De Witt. At Carson City he again telegraphed to the firm in San Francisco, but for some reason came to this city and telegraphed for the money to be sent to him at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s here. Not suspecting anything wrong, the firm telegraphed the $500 to him here, and when arrested he had a dispatch from them in his pocket saying that they had sent the money. Going to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s he gave his name as De Witt, of the firm of De Witt, Kittle & Co., and called for the money. Being acquainted with Mr. De Witt, and knowing that the man before him was not that gentleman, Mr. Latham, of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s, at once sent for Chief Edwards, who arrested the false De Witt while he was preparing to leave for Austin. He had hired Olin, the well known livery stable keeper, to take him in a buggy to the first station on the Overland route, whence he doubtless intended to take the stage for Salt Lake. When first arrested he gave his name as Henry McDavid DeWitt, tried to play off crazy, to jump out of the back window of the telegraph office and some other dodges, but finally gave his name as Henry McDavid, owned up to having obtained the money by using De Witt's name, and wanted to know whether he would be put in irons, stating that he had already been arrested three times, and was once put in irons—he seemed rather afraid of irons. When arrested he had but about $5 in his possession. He stated that he lost over three hundred dollars in a poker game at Carson. He said he had a big hand—four kings—and thought it would do to go his pile on, but the man he was betting against "showed down" four aces and "busted" him. He wrote a letter to an aunt in Brooklyn, N. Y., last night, and another to his "dear sister Anna," informing them of his bad conduct and consequent bad fix, asking them to send him $800, which sum he says it will take to get him "out of jail." In a letter of introduction to Little & Co., Salt Lake City, found on him and doubtless of his own fabrication, he is described as Mr. De Witt, a correspondent of the New York Herald. On the back of this letter are some short-hand characters. He doubtless intended playing some sort of swindling game in the City of Saints. He is now securely locked up in the Station house and will be much more likely to pay a visit to the "Hot Springs Boarding House" than to the land of Brigham.—Virginia Enterprise, 19th inst.

GENERAL DIX, our new Minister, is now with his family at Versailles. The General has taken the apartment formerly occupied by Mr. Dayton as the legation of the United States at No. 6 Rue Presbourg, opposite the Arc de Triomphe de l'Etolle.

ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in the mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most successful medium for advertising in these four Territories.

Received from Abroad.

We have received cash from the following persons and the amounts have been duly credited:

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE.—The gaining of admittance to an editor's "sanctum" is generally attended with some difficulties, but we know of no [illegible]ght departure from one, that, while there is no obstruction in the way, was accomplished in a very short space of time. Our "sanctum" is located some fourteen feet from the ground and is approached by a flight of stairs. A friend of ours, so far forgetting his dignity, while under the influence of liquor, paid us a visit, and as he entered the "sanctum" for the purpose of engaging in conversation and, of course, confidential information, suddenly started for the street, which he reached in about one step. Fearful of having injured himself we followed as soon as possible, but our friend had suddenly disappeared and was nowhere to be seen. We thought of advertising for him, but if he should see this notice, he can by a personal application of the "crystal" succeed in having his name suppressed. A hint to the wise is no doubt sufficient.

TESTIMONIAL OR COURTESIES.—David Scannell, Chief of the Fire Department of San Francisco, recently sent as a present to Eagle Co. No. 3, of Virginia City, Nevada, a valuable set of trumpets. The members of No. 3, we learn, have acknowledged the compliment by a return present in the shape of a cane. The cane, which is of the 19th, says the cane is a beautiful stick of Washoe mahogany, being cut from a noted cord of the wood sawed at the Globe some two years ago on an election bet. The head is of solid Washoe gold and silver, set with rich quartz specimens, and has a most beautifully engraved with emblems peculiar to the Fire Department, appropriately inscribed to the recipient, who will doubtless carry it with feelings of pride, as the token of receiving this elegant and tasteful testimonial of the esteem and appreciation of his brother firemen. The materials composing it are entirely Nevada productions, and it cost about $1,000. It will be forwarded to San Francisco by express.

THE REVERE HOUSE.—Friday night we attended the Ball at the above House, it being the anniversary of Washington's Birthday. We were pleased to see it so well patronized, notwithstanding the night was one of the most inclement we have had this winter. The dancing was in the spacious dining room, and the supper was served up in the best style at the Hotel. About 1 o'clock the company sat down to an excellent supper, to which justice was done by all. The supper was better than ordinary notice; and when we learn that it was prepared under the immediate supervision of Mrs. Jenks, the hostess of the House, it is unnecessary to add that it was par excellence. The dancing was kept up till after 4 o'clock in the morning, and everybody enjoyed themselves.

BOOKS AND FAVORS.—We found on our table on the morning the late February magazines of Leslie's, both monthly and weekly; the New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Harper's Monthly, which contains lots of fun, all of the above were stamped in gold ink with "John Stratman, News Agent, San Francisco." By late dispatches from California we find this is the same man who is now the Lieutenant Gubernatorial candidate of California.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. James Boyle, one of the drivers on the route between this city and Ophir, accidentally shot himself on Saturday last while handling his pistol rather carelessly. The ball passed through his hand and rendered the amputation of two of his fingers necessary. He was brought to this city and placed under the medical charge of Dr. Williams.

A FREAK.—At Lynn, Massachusetts, the other day, a bold and reckless man climbed to the top of the spire of the new Baptist church in that city, a distance of 170 feet from the ground, and stood there for several minutes with his head, although the wind was blowing almost a gale at the time. A foolish act.

INJURED.—The Virginia Enterprise says that John Sherman, a native of Ohio, but who emigrated to Nevada from California, was seriously if not fatally injured on the evening of the 17th inst., at Virginia City by a heavy timber falling upon him of the hind axle of a wagon.

CONVICT ARRESTED.—Detectives Scannell and Gammon of the detective police force of San Francisco have arrested an old convict named James Hammond, whose operations are said to be very extensive, having been one of the most prominent merchants in that city to a considerable amount.

ARREST.—John Stratman, the popular newsdealer of San Francisco, having been announced as a candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governor of California, is out in the Sacramento Bee with a card stating in substance that he declines the honor.

SHOT HIS OWN TRAP.—Henry Kruse of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, lately set a gun in his smoke house in order to shoot a thief who had visited him, on their return morning, forgetting it was there, entered the house and received the entire charge in his body, which killed him almost instantly.

RIOT.—The late riot in San Francisco between the Irish and the Chinese has created an irrepressible hostility toward the Chinese on the part of a certain class. So say the dispatches.

DECISION.—Judge Hoffman, of the United States District Court, in San Francisco, rendered a decision against the owners of the gold-clad steamer Camanche. The Camanche salvors nearly $100,000.

A SMOOTH SCHEME.—The quietude of the Sabbath was disturbed by an altercation which occurred in front of the Salt Lake House, yesterday. The particulars, as far as we could learn, were, that an old feud existed between a Mr. Carter and a Mr. Murphy, both well known in this city. The latter was a member of the last Idaho Legislature, and the latter proprietor of a toll road between here and Montana. The difficulty was in relation to some papers; the lie was passed, and the parties clinched, some skill in the science of Boxiana being exhibited for a few moments, when they were separated—Murphy running up street, and Carter following with a derringer drawn, which he fired at Murphy, but missed him. No injury but a few scratches, except the damage in the barber shop where the fight occurred, a window pane and a shelf being broken in the melee. The parties were arrested and held to answer before Judge Clinton this morning. When the bill of the Judge is settled, we suppose friend Diehl will bring in his claim for damages.

PURSUIT VS. PLEASURE.—On our way down Second South street—in search of an item—we had the pleasure of meeting a solution of the old philosophical question as to the difference between active and passive happiness. "Whether it is better to pursue or possess pleasure." We discovered a large crowd of small but excited "niggers" congregated on the walk, and, with our usual and irrepressible curiosity, pressed our way through the crowd, and found a man who had actively sought pleasure, in whisky, and passively found his ultimatum in drunken helplessness. The solution of the question suggests itself to any inquiring mind.

Arrivals and Departures.

From the North—Feb. 23—J. J. Tracy.
From the West—Feb. 23—A. Hopper, Maj. Egan.
To the North—Feb. 23—J. B. Keeney, Jas. Garland, Stephen DeWolf.
To the East—Feb. 23—D. McN. Palmer.
To the West—Feb. 25—Seth Wilson.

MRS. GETZLER'S BENEFIT.—The benefit of Mrs. Getzler last night was a benefit indeed. The house was crowded from pit to dome—not a single square foot of standing room in the dress-circle was unoccupied. The benefit was certainly a success, as to the performance—well, we hardly have space to go into critical details. Some few did well and some few not so well—and some few did not begin doing well until they had got through their parts. However, it was a huge old house—a rouser.—Virginia Enterprise, Feb. 17th.

THE Honorable Colonel Cæsar Kaluaikau Kahanupauokalani Kamakaehukai Keolaokalam Kapaakea, Member of the House of Nobles, Privy Council of State, and Knight Companion of the Order of Kamehameha, was buried with imposing military ceremonies at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, on the ninth of December last.

PROGRESS OF RATIFICATION.—The States which have so far ratified the Constitutional Amendment, are Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, New York, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Maine, West Virginia, Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota—16.

DOUGLAS JERROLD calls woman's arms "the serpent's that wind about a man's neck, killing his best resolutions." The "oldest inhabitant" says he don't object to them kind of serpents.

IT is stated that General Sherman told a friend that he liked to obey orders, but he be d—d if he was going to ride a thousand miles on a mule to hunt for Juarez or Maximilian either.

A YOUTH in Chicago was sent by the father of a miss to select, from her judgment, a suitable "sewing machine." The twain returned one flesh, both stating they had made a proper selection.

A tipsy loafer who mistook a globe lamp with letters on it for the queen of night, exclaimed, "I'll be blessed if somebody hain't stuck an advertisement on the moon."

SIGN OF THE GILT ANCHOR!

DENVER, COLORADO,

Is not the "Largest," but the MOST ELEGANT CLOTHING HOUSE in Colorado.

And from the East and to the West
Are gentlemen dressed
In suits from Anker's Hall;
And none, as yet, was heard to regret
That he ever gave him a call.
He honestly deals,
And nothing conceals,
Regarding the wear of his clothes.
But speaks with the truth,
To man and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows.

Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Walk boldly—don't cowardly creep
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.

The citizens of Utah, Idaho and Montana are at all times cordially invited to call at ANCHOR'S POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE, when in Denver, and examine his most Elegant and Tasteful Stock of Goods, which will be sold at Prices Guaranteed Lower than the Lowest.
